PRACTITIONERS EVENTS

ABOUT THE EVENT

As part of our collaborative response, this half day session is aimed at practitioners and front-line managers from statutory, voluntary and community sector organisations working with children, young people, families and communities.

It will cover an overview of the developing trends and threats from county lines and/or urban street gangs in your area, as well as key information about Suffolk's planned response and your role in helping to deliver it.

This is an important event for anyone whose work brings them into contact with individuals who are involved in or are at risk of being drawn into County Lines or Urban Street Gangs activity; or brings them into contact with vulnerable adults such as those with drug misuse issues who are may be at risk of exploitation by them. It will also be of interest to those working in affected communities or locations

THERE ARE TWO SESSIONS AVAILABLE IN EACH LOACTION EITHER 9:30 – 12:30 or 13:00 – 16:00
