

CHECKLIST OF INDICATORS

Hotels

Sexual Exploitation can happen any time of the day and any day of the week. Please keep your eyes and ears open while on duty. By being alert you may prevent a vulnerable person from being exploited or trafficked and maintain the credibility of your premises.

Key indicators for the hotel

- Reception / Public areas:
- Guests refusing to leave credit card imprint and insists paying in cash
- Guests requesting a room that is isolated
- Guests with local address renting a room
- Guests who do not have any luggage or ID
- Guests who appear secretive about their visit
- Last minute walk-in bookings
- Booking made in different names than those checking-in
- Guests trying to conceal their activities in the room
- Guests requesting an isolated room that is more private
- Guests who don't want their room visited
- Guests who request their room isn't cleaned
- Guests trying to conceal who they are with
- Guests with a young person who appears nervous, withdrawn or fearful and acts upon instruction
- Guests with a young person who appears disorientated or restricted from moving/communicating
- Guests who do not speak the same language as the person checking in
- Young people with significantly older partners
- Young girls who appear overly made up (make-up / clothing) that is inappropriate for their age
- Young people loitering in public areas/external areas of premises
- Guests arriving and asking for a specific room number with no details of the booking name
- Guests who move in and out of the premises regularly at unusual hours
- Numerous visitors to a room at regular intervals
- Unusual high traffic to guest room who do not appear to have a reason for being there
- Individuals who appear to be monitoring public areas
- Two or more adult males heading for a room may indicate a party
- Guests who access an excessive or unusual amount of pornography (TV or computer)
- Ordering alcohol to a room with underage people
- Neighbouring guests complaining about noise from the guests' room
- Checking out early

House-keeping

- Rooms with signs of sexual activity
- Guest rooms with a lot of condoms/condom wrappers
- Guest rooms with evidence of drug usage/drug paraphernalia (e.g. syringes, wraps, pipes, bongs, broken light bulbs, spoons, plastic bags, antiseptic wipes, prescription / over the counter drugs)
- Guests who refuse to have their room cleaned
- A hospitality suite with business men and young people (adults may be there for an event, conference or meeting)